Numb. 6918.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 9, to Saturday January 13, 1749.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th Day of January, 1749.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS ſince the Publication of his Majeſty's Order in Council of the 14th of December laſt, For prohibiting the Removal of any of the Horned Cattle for the Space of Two Months, Diverſe Informations have have been received, whereby it appears, that great Inconveniencies are likely to happen from the ſaid Prohibition to the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and many other Parts of the Kingdom; which having been this Day taken into Conſideration ——His Majeſty doth therefore order, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, that the ſaid Order in Council of the 14th of December laſt, be, and it is hereby Vacated and Repealed; and that the Order of Council of the 22d of March 1747, and all the Rules and Regulations therein contained, ſhall be obſerved, kept, and performed in every Part thereof, until further Order.

And for the better Execution of ſo much of his Majeſty's ſaid Order in Council of the 22d of March 1747, as relates to the killing and burying the diſtemper'd Cattle; it is hereby further ordered, That the Owners of all Horned Cattle do, as ſoon as the Diſtemper ſhall appear in or among any of the ſaid Cattle, immediately give Notice thereof to the Conſtable of the Town or Pariſh, and alſo to the Church-wardens and Overſeers of the Pariſh or Place where ſuch infected Cattle ſhall be, of the Appearance of ſuch Infection, or to any Inſpector already appointed or to be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace for the Diſtrict where ſuch Pariſh or Place ſhall lie.

And his Majeſty doth hereby ſtrictly charge and command all his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the ſeveral Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities, Liberties, and Towns Corporate within this Kingdom, and alſo the Commiſſioners of the Land Tax authorized to act herein, to carry his Majeſty's ſaid Order of Council of the 22d of March 1747, into due Execution. And alſo the ſeveral Acts of Parliament made in relation to the ſaid Cattle; and that they do likewiſe cauſe the Penalties, directed by the ſaid Acts, to be inflicted on all Perſons who ſhall diſobey any of the Rules, Orders and Regulations made by his Majeſty in Council.

And for the better notifying of this Order, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that the ſame be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and be alſo inſerted in the next London Gazette; and be likewiſe read in all Pariſh Churches, Chapels, and other Places ſet apart for Divine Worſhip, on the Firſt Sunday after the Publication hereof, inſtead of the Order in Council of the 14th of December laſt, which is hereby repealed; and that for the Time to come, his Majeſty's Order in Council of the 22d of March 1747, be continued to be read, as is therein directed.

William Sharpe.

Copy of a Letter from Thomas Curtis, Eſq; Mayor of Briſtol, to His Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle. Briſtol, January 8, 1749.

My Lord,

I was greatly ſurpriſed to hear, by a Letter which I this Day received from Mr. Juſtice Foſter, that it had been inſerted in the London Gazetteer of Saturday laſt, that there was certain Advice by Letters from this Place, that the Plague was broke out on board a Ship in Kingroad lately arrived from Smyrna, ſeveral of the People having died within theſe few Days. On Receipt of this Letter, I immediately applied to the Collector of the Cuſtoms here, who directly ordered the proper Officers to make diligent Search and Inquiry, whether any Diſtemper is, or lately had been, on board any Ship arrived at this Port; and thoſe Officers have certified under their Hands, that no Sickneſs whatſoever has been on board any ſuch Ships.

(Price Four-Pence.)

HALFPENNY

Altho' there is not the leaſt Foundation for this Rumour, nor has any Ship arrived here from Smyrna for many Years paſt; yet I find, by ſeveral Gentlemen, who have received Letters from their Correſpondents in the Country, that the Alarm is become general, and likely to be of the greateſt Detriment to the Trade and Intereſt of this City, and very alarming to the Publick in General, if not ſpeedily put a Stop to.

I therefore take this Liberty of informing your Grace of it by Expreſs, not doubting, but you will take all proper Methods that this falſe and villainous Report be contradicted in the moſt publick and authentick Manner, as ſoon as poſſible, and the Publiſhers of it brought to their due Puniſhment.

The Collector of the Cuſtoms has, by the ſame Conveyance, wrote to the Commiſſioners, and certified to them, that there is not, nor has been, any Sickneſs on board any Ship lately arrived at this Port.

I am, &c.

Thomas Curtis, Mayor.

To His Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle.

The following Addreſs of the Governour and Council of Barbados, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Bedford, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governour and Council of your Majeſty's Iſland of Barbados.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governour and Council of your Majeſty's Iſland of Barbados, humbly crave Leave to embrace this Opportunity of expreſſing the grateful Senſe we have of the many Benefits we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign; Benefits that could never be communicated to ſo diſtant a Colony, but by the conſummate Wiſdom, unwearied Vigilance, and amiable Goodneſs of the Supreme Lord thereof, and ſuch as is not in the Power of the warmeſt Hearts of its Inhabitants ſufficiently to acknowledge.

Amidſt all other important Avocations, ſuch was your Majeſty's Care of, and Concern for, your Dominions in theſe Parts during the late War, that they cannot be ſaid to have felt the Calamities incident thereto, and were ſcarce under any Apprehenſions of Danger from either of the powerful States then at Enmity with your Majeſty, who was graciouſly pleaſed to ſupply us with a Naval Force ſuperior to the apparent Efforts of both. By this your Majeſty did at the ſame Time give the cleareſt Teſtimony of a conſtant Attention to the true Intereſts of your People in general, ſince thoſe Intereſts are undoubtedly interwoven with, and do in a great Meaſure depend upon, the Preſervation and Encouragement of that large Branch of Commerce which has its Source in theſe Iſlands.

As your Majeſty's extenſive Views and truly noble Paſſion for the publick Good, were very conſpicuous in your ſeaſonable and moſt zealous Endeavours to reſtore the Tranquility of Europe, and to ſettle the Balance thereof on a firm and laſting Foundation; ſo the ſame Wiſdom and Conduct are equally to be admired in the ſpeedy Accompliſhment of that great and neceſſary Work; an Event no leſs glorious to the happy Inſtrument, than it will be advantageous to all around him; and which, while it proclaims the tendereſt Affection of the beſt of Kings to his own Subjects, does alſo plainly evince a real Love to the whole Species.

After the many juſt Congratulations which your Majeſty will have received from thoſe who are nearer your Royal Perſon, we at this Diſtance could not omit to offer likewiſe our moſt humble Tribute on the Occaſion; and though we are neceſſarily later in paying our Duty, we think we are at leaſt as ardent in our Homage as any of our Fellow Subjects whatever. We ſhall certainly be alike Partakers of the Bleſſings of Peace in common with them, and the Sovereign Goodneſs has been dealt out to us with ſo liberal a Hand, that the Impreſſions made thereby on our Minds, can only be exceeded by the Deſire we feel within us of acknowledging it.

Permit us then, great Sir, whilſt we thus preſume to approach the Throne, to add, That we moſt fervently wiſh your Majeſty may long live to be a Benefactor to Mankind in general, and a peculiar Bleſſing to your own People; That the future Part of your Reign may be attended with every proſperous Circumſtance, and free from every Incident tending to diminiſh the Felicity thereof; That all who have the Happineſs to live under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Adminiſtration, may be as ſincerely grateful for, as they cannot but be truly ſenſible of it; and that the Britiſh Sceptre may continue in your illuſtrious Family to lateſt Poſterity. In theſe Sentiments and Hopes, we ſubſcribe, with the moſt awful Deference,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, moſt dutiful, and moſt faithful Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs of the General Aſſembly of Barbados, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Bedford, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the General Aſſembly of your Majeſty's Iſland of Barbados.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the General Aſſembly of your Majeſty's Iſland of Barbados, humbly crave Leave to embrace this Opportunity of expreſſing the grateful Senſe we have of the many Benefits we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign; Benefits that could never be communicated to ſo diſtant a Colony, but by the conſummate Wiſdom, unwearied Vigilance, and amiable Goodneſs of the ſupreme Lord thereof; and ſuch as is not in the Power of the warmeſt Hearts of its Inhabitants ſufficiently to acknowledge.

Amidſt all other important Avocations, ſuch was your Majeſty's Care of, and Concern for your Dominions in theſe Parts during the late War, that we were moſt graciouſly ſupplied with a Naval Force ſuperior to the apparent Efforts of both the powerful States then at Enmity with your Majeſty; and which therefore ought and might, with ſuitable Improvements, have entirely prevented the leaſt Apprehenſions of any Danger from either of them. By this your Majeſty did at the ſame Time give the cleareſt Teſtimony of a conſtant Attention to the true Intereſts of your People in general, ſince thoſe Intereſts are undoubtedly interwoven with, and do in a great Meaſure depend upon, the Preſervation and Encouragement of that large Branch of Commerce which has its Source in theſe Iſlands. From hence we have Ground to ſolace ourſelves with the Hopes, that your Majeſty's gracious Intentions to extend, and by all proper Meaſures to promote the Trade of the Britiſh Nation in general, will of Courſe lead to an Exemption of the Britiſh Sugar Colonies from ſome at leaſt of thoſe Reſtraints, Duties, and Impoſitions, under which they at preſent labour, and which muſt otherwiſe indeed, in our humble Apprehenſion, ſoon fix the Sugar Trade in the Poſſeſſion of our cautious and indefatigable Rivals the French, beyond a Poſſibility of retrieving.

As your Majeſty's extenſive Views and truly noble Paſſion for the publick Good, were very conſpicuous in your ſeaſonable and moſt zealous Endeavours to reſtore the Tranquility of Europe, and to ſettle the Balance thereof on a firm and laſting Foundation; ſo the ſame Wiſdom and Conduct are equally to be admired in the ſpeedy Accompliſhment of that great and neceſſary Work; an Event no leſs glorious to the happy Inſtrument, than it will be advantageous to all around him; and which, while it proclaims the tendereſt Affection of the beſt of Kings to his own Subjects, does alſo plainly evince a real Love to the whole Species.

After the many juſt Congratulations which your Majeſty will have received from thoſe who are nearer your Royal Perſon, We at this Diſtance could not omit to offer likewiſe our moſt humble Tribute on the Occaſion; And though we are neceſſarily later in paying our Duty, we think we are at leaſt as ardent in our Homage, as any of our Fellow Subjects whatever.

Though we have no Account that Tobago, Sta Lucia, St. Vincents, and Dominico, are evacuated by the French, yet the laudable and moſt worthy Spirit which appears by his Grace the Duke of Bedford's Letters to his Excellency our Governour, that your Majeſty was pleaſed to ſhew in relation to thoſe Iſlands, will, we are fully perſuaded, be exerted with ſuch Vigour, as to procure the much deſired Effect with the utmoſt Expedition. And we truſt that we barely ſhew a becoming Zeal for your Majeſty's Glory, when we declare we cannot be eaſy in our Minds, till we are fully aſſured of ſo neceſſary an Event. In Conſequence whereof, your Majeſty's grateful Subjects in theſe Parts, cannot but expect to be alike Partakers of the Bleſſings of Peace in common with the reſt; and the Sovereign Goodneſs has already in many Inſtances been dealt out to us with ſo liberal a Hand; that the Impreſſions made thereby on our Minds, can only be exceeded by the Deſire we feel within us of acknowledging it.

Permit us then, Great Sir, whilſt we thus preſume to approach the Throne, to add, That we moſt fervently wiſh your Majeſty may long live to be a Benefactor to Mankind in general, and a peculiar Bleſſing to your own People; That the future Part of your Reign may be attended with every proſperous Circumſtance, and free from every Incident tending to diminiſh the Felicity thereof; That all who have the Happineſs to live under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Adminiſtration, may be as ſincerely grateful for, as they cannot but be truly ſenſible of it; and that the Britiſh Sceptre may continue in your illuſtrious Family to lateſt Poſterity. In theſe Sentiments and Hopes we ſubſcribe, with the moſt awful Deference,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, moſt dutiful, and moſt faithful Subjects and Servants.

Miſtow,

Moſcow, Dec. 25. Some Days ago her Imperial Majeſty was ſlightly indiſpoſed, but ſhe is now perfectly recovered, and has paid her laſt Viſit to the Monaſtery of Troitza. The Departure of the Court for Petersbourg, which was fixed for this Morning, did not take Place, though all Things ſeemed ready for that Purpoſe, but 'tis thought the Empreſs will ſet out To-morrow; and the rather, as all Buſineſs at Court is at an End, and Advice has been received that the ſledging Way is quite open.

Turin, Jan. 1. Preparations are already making at Court for celebrating, with great Magnificence, the Marriage of the Duke of Savoy with the Infanta of Spain. The King has given Orders for raiſing a ſufficient Number of Recruits to complete all his Regiments, his Majeſty intending to have all his Forces on the ſame Footing as at the Concluſion of the late War.

Plaiſance, Jan. 2. On the 29th of laſt Month an Edict was publiſhed here, by which his Serene Highneſs the Duke our Sovereign grants a general Pardon to divers Criminals and other Perſons confined in the different Goals of this City, on Occaſion of the happy Arrival of the Infanta his Spouſe.

Vienna, Jan. 6. On the 4th Inſtant his Imperial Majeſty appeared in Publick for the firſt Time ſince his late Indiſpoſition. Her Imperial Majeſty intends to appear no more in publick till after ſhe is brought to Bed, for whoſe happy Delivery publick Prayers have been put up in all the Churches of this City for theſe two Days paſt.

Vienna, Jan. 7. Count Harrach the Governor of Milan, is made Preſident of the Supreme Court of Juſtice, in the Place of Count Seilern, who has reſigned; however, the former is to continue at Milan till the End of his three Years, which will be in September next. Count Cortensky is declared Preſident of the Council of Bohemia, which is a Part of the Supreme Court of Juſtice, and judges in the Affairs of that Kingdom; and Count Schafgotſch, a Member of that Council, is made Privy-Counſellor. Count Tarouca ſucceeds Count Monte Santo as Preſident of the Council of Italy, and continues at the ſame Time Preſident of the Council of Flanders; but he gives up the Office of Super-intendant of the Buildings, which the Empreſs has conferred upon Count Loſy. Count d'Ord, formerly Vice-Chancellor of Auſtria, ſucceeds the latter as Preſident of the Council of Police, and his Place of Preſident of the Council of Auſtria, which likewiſe makes Part of the Supreme Court of Juſtice, and judges in the particular Affairs of the Archdutchy, is given to Count Breuner of Stiria. A Family is forming for the Archduke Charles, and the Counts Schoenborn, Schafgotſch, Galer, and Windiſchgratz, are appointed Chamberlains to that young Prince.

Hambourg, Jan. 9. The Contagious Diſtemper which has raged for ſome Time paſt in Volhinia and Podolia, having manifeſted itſelf not only in the Neighbourhood of Mohilow in Lithuania, but even in the Ukraine, the Queen of Hungary is taking all neceſſary Means for preventing its being brought into her Hereditary Dominions on that Side; for which Purpoſe, ſtrict Orders have been ſent to all the Magiſtrates, not to permit any Perſons or Effects whatſoever, coming from either of thoſe Countries, to paſs the Frontiers of Hungary, without proper Bills of Health; which Precaution we hope will in ſome Meaſure help to put a Stop to the farther Progreſs of that Diſtemper.

Copenhagen, Jan. 10. Advice has been received at Court, that M. Neuſpieter, Governor of the Fortreſs of Chriſtianſoe, died there the 24th of laſt Month. They write from Helſeneur, that the Prince Royal, one of our Eaſt India Company's Ships bound for China, and the Jagersberg and Chriſtianſted, two Ships belonging to our Weſt India Company, which put to Sea the 31ſt of laſt Month, and were followed the 2d Inſtant by the Docke, and the 4th by the Fyhne, both bound for China, had all ſafely paſſed the Sound. The Queen is now ſo near her Time, that we are in daily Expectation of hearing of her happy Delivery.

Paris, Jan. 16. On Sunday laſt the Deputies of the Province of Bretagne were admitted to an Audience of the King. A few Days ago died M. Dumenil, Lieutenant General of the King's Forces, and Inſpector General of the Cavalry. Advice has been received that the Algerine Corſairs have taken two of our Ships, which have been condemned by that Regency, notwithſtanding the Remonſtrances made by our Conſul there to the contrary.

Hague, Jan. 18, N. S. The Hereditary Prince of Anſpach, and the two young Princes of Naſſau Uſingen, arrived here on Thurſday laſt from Utrecht; and the next Morning were preſented to their Serene Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange, and met with a gracious Reception; ſince which a third Prince of Naſſau Uſingen is alſo arrived here from Utrecht, and has waited on their Serene Highneſſes, and met with a like Reception. And To-morrow theſe four Young Noblemen are all invited to dine at Court.

Hague, Jan. 20, N. S. This Day their High Mightineſſes were pleaſed to confer the Place of Grand Treaſurer, vacant by the Death of the late M. Vander Does, on M. Baſſecourt the ſecond Greffier; and likewiſe to appoint M. Fagel, who has for ſome Years paſt been firſt Greffier, to act in that Office ſolely, without any Under Greffier. The Lottery which was voted by the Generality for the raiſing of Seven Million of Florins, was opened the Day before Yeſterday, and met with such great Encouragement, that the whole Sum was subscribed that Day.

Hague, Jan. 21, N. S. Every Thing remains perfectly quiet since the Riot at Haarlem, and the Collectors go on raising the Taxes without Opposition. Some low People having begun to clamour at Rotterdam, were immediately seized by the Magistrates, and conducted to Prison in the ordinary Course of Justice.

Whitehall, January 13.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Sir John Strange, Knt. the Office of Master or Keeper of the Rolls and Records in his Majesty's Court of Chancery.

Ordo Curiæ. Friday the 12th Day of January 1749. in the 23d Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Second.

WHEREAS Mr. Attorney General, for and on the Behalf of the Accomptant General of this Court, this Day informed the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, That by an Act of Parliament passed in this present Session of Parliament, entituled, An Act for reducing the several Annuities which now carry an Interest after the Rate of 4 l. per Cent. per Annum, to the several Rates of Interest therein mentioned, It is amongst other Things enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful for all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, Committees of the Estates of Ideots or Lunaticks, and the Accomptant General of the Court of Chancery, and the Deputy Remembrancer of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, to make or cause to be made Subscriptions in the Book or Books in the said Act mentioned, signifying their Consent to accept an Interest or Annuity of 3 l. 10 s. per Cent. per Annum, from the 25th Day of December 1750, until the 25th Day of December 1757, and of an Annuity of 3 l. per Cent. per Annum, to commence from the said 25th Day of December 1757, for and on Behalf of their respective Testators, Infants, Minors, Femes Covert, Ideots, Lunaticks, and the Suitors of the Court of Chancery, and of the said Court of Exchequer, and others for whom they are or shall be respectively entrusted. And such Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, Committees, and Accomptant General, and Deputy Remembrancer, are and shall be, by virtue of the said Act, indemnified in and for doing the same. And Mr. Attorney General also informed his Lordship, that there is now standing in the Name of the said Accomptant General, in Trust for the Suitors of this Court, and for several Lunaticks, sundry very large Sums in Old South Sea Annuities, New South Sea Annuities, and 4 l. per Cent. Bank Annuities, and on Behalf of the Accomptant General, prayed his Lordship to give Directions therein. Whereupon his Lordship doth order, That the said Accomptant General be at Liberty, in Pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, to make or cause to be made Subscriptions in the Books opened at the South Sea House and Bank of England for the Purposes aforesaid, signifying his Consent to accept of an Interest or Annuity of 3 l. 10 s. per Cent. per Annum, from the said 25th Day of December 1750, until the said 25th Day of December 1757, and of an Annuity of 3 l. per Cent. per Annum, to commence from the said 25th Day of December 1757, for and on Behalf of the Suitors of this Court and Lunaticks, on all such Sums of Old South Sea Annuities, New South Sea Annuities, and 4 l. per Cent. Bank Annuities, as shall be standing in his Name, in Trust for the said Suitors and Lunaticks, at the Time of making such Subscriptions, except so far as any Order or Orders of this Court to the contrary shall be obtained, and Notice thereof given in Writing to the said Accomptant General, on or before the 12th Day of February next, upon the Application of any of the Suitors of this Court, who shall be desirous that any of the Securities under the Direction of this Court standing in the Name of the said Accountant General, in which they are or shall be interested, shall not be subscribed in Manner aforesaid. And it is further ordered, that this Order shall be forthwith affixed up in the Offices of the Accountant General, Registers, and Six Clerks of this Court, and published in the London Gazette.

Geo. Edwards, Dep. Reg.
